MyBlueprint & the Canadian Scholarship Trust Foundation (link)

The Canadian Scholarship Trust Foundation supports access to post-secondary education (PSE) for all Canadians. We are passionate about higher learning and believe that finances should not be a barrier to accessing post-secondary education.

In honour of notable members of the Canadian Scholarship Trust family, we are excited to provide $150,000 worth of bursaries to students facing financial barriers in order to help them access post-secondary education. The bursary can be used to cover tuition as well as school-related expenses such as books, supplies, or living expenses.

The bursaries are intended for students who can demonstrate financial need, and whose financial need may make it difficult for them to continue their studies. Preference will be given to students who are first-generation PSE students*.

*First generation PSE students are students whose parents did not complete post-secondary education (i.e. did not attend either college or university).

Rupertsland Institute (link)

Rupertsland Institute (RLI) provides post-secondary financial aid to Métis students to reduce the overall cost of education and the financial burden it can have. RLI seeks to increase the number of Métis students who successfully complete post-secondary studies and to bring parity between Métis post-secondary participation to that of other Albertans.

The RLI Post-Secondary Education (PSE) program is made possible by a 10-year funding agreement between the Government of Canada and the Métis Nation of Alberta and it is in effect until 2029. Because the agreement is distinctions-based, only Métis Nation of Alberta citizens will be able to access PSE programming.

PSE funding will be available to eligible applicants on a first come, first serve basis. Funding is limited.
