

Readiness for the Skilled Trades – Level 2

2024-2025 School Year

14 full days September to March

9:00 – 3:00 at Olds College

Why take the Readiness for the Skilled Trades Level 2 Opportunity?

If you are looking for a career in the Trades this program is for you! By completing this program in high school, you gain valuable trades skills that prepare you for your career. This course is a great on your resume.

Program Description

- Students will expand their industry ready welding skills gained in Level 1
- Earn high school credits in Fabrication

Student Eligibility

Open to CESD high school students, who are/have:

- Completed Readiness for the Skilled Trades – Level 1
- Want to pursue further training for apprenticeship placements
- Able to commit to the duration of the program and attend all 14 classes
- CSA approved steel toed boots, gloves, and safety glasses required; coveralls recommended
- Students are able to transport themselves individually to Olds College

Program Benefits

- Training by qualified Olds College Welding Journeyman instructors
- Valuable training to help you secure an apprenticeship in the skilled trades
- The tuition cost is covered by Chinook's Edge School Division

Costs to the Student

- There will be a shop consumable material cost of $150.00 plus the cost of the learning materials which are approximately $40.00

Contact your school Career Counselor or Career Practitioner for more information or to put your name forward for consideration

