

Readiness for the Skilled Trades – Level 1

2024-2025 School Year

7 full days per semester

9:00-3:00 at Olds College

Why take the Readiness for the Skilled Trades Level 1 Opportunity?

If you are looking for a career in the Trades this program is for you! By completing this program in high school, you gain valuable trades skills that prepare you for your career. This course is a great on your resume.

Program Description

- Students will gain skills in apprenticeship safety, hand tools and welding
- Earn 4 high school credits
 - AEA 3900 Apprenticeship Safety
 - AEA 3400 Tools and Materials
 - AEA 3405 Welding Equipment
 - AEA 3410 Electric Welding

Student Eligibility

 Open to CESD high school students, who are/have:

- Students must have completed HCS 3000
- Mature, punctual and reliable with a willingness to learn.
- Able to commit to the duration of the program and attend all 14 classes across the school year.
- CSA approved steel toed boots, gloves, and safety glasses required; coveralls recommended

Program Benefits

- Training by qualified Olds College Welding Journeyman instructors
- Valuable training to help you secure an apprenticeship in the skilled trades
- The tuition/busing cost is covered by Chinook's Edge School Division

Costs to the Student

- Each semester there will be a charge to the student for both shop consumable materials and learning materials. Approximately $150.00 per semester.

Contact your school Career Counselor or Career Practitioner for more information or to put your name forward for consideration

